Who: The Lycée Français de New York
What: 75th Anniversary Launch reception
When: Thursday, September 23, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.
Where: 505 East 75th Street, New York, NY

More Information:

The Lycée Français de New York's 75th Anniversary festivities include events all year long. The New York Launch Reception on September 23 will be held in the school at 505 East 75th Street starting at 6:00 P.M. The evening program will feature welcoming ceremony remarks, by Chair of Board, Head of School and co-chairs, 75th Anniversary film premiere, and tours of the Lycée.

The Lycee will also unveil a commemorative book "Lycee Francais de New York 1935 – 2010", celebrating the Lycee Francais' 75th anniversary, produced by Assouline Publishing. We will also be premiering a film on the history of the school created by Fabrice Frère, class of '85. A second celebration event will take place on October 7 in Paris at the Club de l'Union Interalliée to unite and engage our European community.

The theme of the Lycée Français de New York's 75th anniversary celebration is: "Educating Tomorrow's World Citizens".

Scheduled to Attend:

- Yves Thézé, Head of School
- Marie- Noëlle Pierce, President of the Alumni Board
- Stephan Haimo, President of the Board of Trustees

To Attend to Reception:

Contact Céline Yvan, at (212) 439-3851 or cyvan@lfny.org, to be added to the press list.

###

Celebrating its 75th year, the Lycée Français de New York is a non-profit, independent private coeducational institution, which creates two parallel educations for the students that attend; It is chartered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, and accredited by the French Ministry of National Education and by The New York State Association of Independent Schools (NYSAIS.) Located on the Upper East Side of Manhattan, LFNY educates 1300 students representing 60 nationalities, from early childhood through high school. The Lycée awards the New York State High School Diploma and prepares its students to pass the French baccalaureate. For more information, visit www.lfny.org.
